

Backgrounder

Four highway improvement projects in Saskatchewan receive government funding

The governments of Canada and Saskatchewan are investing in well-planned infrastructure that will make it easier to move people and products across the country, while supporting sustained economic growth and productivity for years to come. The following four highway improvement projects will receive more than $75 million in joint federal-provincial funding to improve road infrastructure across the province.

Location	Project description	Federal contribution	Provincial contribution	Total eligible costs
Town of Wadena; Town of Watson	Rehabilitation of approximately 31 km of Highway 5.	$ 4,396,171	$ 4,503,829	$ 8,800,000
Village of Belle Plaine; Village of Craven; Northern Town of La Ronge; Town of Lumsden; Village of Meath Park; Town of Moosomin; Town of Raymore; Town of Rocanville; Town of Unity; Town of Wilkie	Eight sections of highway, totalling approximately 76 km will be rehabilitated along highways 1, 6, 8, 14, 20, 21, 55 and 102.	$12,419,753	$14,090,247	$25,960,000
Resort Village of Cochin; City of Melfort; City of North Battleford	Rehabilitation of approximately 10 km of Highway 3. Construction of four sets of passing lanes on Highway 4 and the rehabilitation of approximately 21 km.	$8,093,250	$8,723,250	$16,186,500
Town of Delisle; Town of Grenfell; City of Moose Jaw	Rehabilitation of approximately 43 km of Highway 1 and approximately 37 km of Highway 7.	$7,830,004	$15,419,996	$22,800,000
Total federal and provincial contributions		$32,739,178	$42,737,322	