2016 - 2018	Saskatchewan Health Authority – Meadow Lake	An employee misappropriated funds from several residents' trust accounts.	$15,636	The incident was reported through an internal whistle blower report, which resulted in the finance function in the former Prairie North Regional Health Authority (PNRHA) performing a detailed review of records to confirm the theft. The employee was terminated and the matter was reported to the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) for further prosecution. The RCMP arrested and charged the former employee in March 2022. The individual entered a guilty plea, and has paid restitution to the SHA as ordered by the court. The SHA considers this incident concluded at this time.
